The Excitement Produced in this City Expressions of Sympathy Every where Meeting of the City Council Called by the Mayor. The Masonic and Odd Fellows' Lodges

to Meet To-Night. To Extend Aid to the Sufferest.

The great Chicago calamity was the all-absorbing topic upon our streets yesterday. Upon the reception of telegraphic dispatches in the morning, announcing the extent of the conflagration, the entire community became excited over the dreadful tidings, and the newspaper offices were crowded during came excited over the dreadful tunings, and the newspaper offices were crowded during the newspaper offices were crowded as a condition of the newspaper particulars as they were transmitted by tel-egraph. As fast as the news was received, it was posted on the bulletin boards, and our citizens crowded around to fearn the latest intelligence. Throughout the day groups of citizens were to be seen congre-gated on our principal thoroughfares, talk-ing about the fire and its consequences, and expressions of sympathy were heard on every side. The Mayor called a meeting for to-day, the Board of Trade met at their rooms and suggested a meeting of the merchants in conjunction with the citizens' meeting, the Masons and Odd Fellows determined to h old meetings to-night, and our citizens generally seemed to be interested in liberal aid going from Nashville in behalf of the

We hear of some of our citizens who are considerably interested in Chicago property, and in some cases, it is feared, have lost heavily. Many of our produce merchants have made large shipments of fruit and oth-r articles within the last few days, some of ewhich arrived before the breaking out of the fire, and some of which is on the route to that point. We heard of several of our merchants who expected to draw on their agents yesterday for returns from sales, but of course were prevented, and in this respect our own citizens are more or less affected by the terrible calamity. Such a fire as that which has occurred will be seriously felt in every city in the country, and may bring financial ruin to many outside of Chicago, the scene of the unfortunate disaster which has reduced to ruins a large portion of the finest blocks of buildings in the country, and in one short hour made millionaires penniless, and brought distress and starvation upon one hundred thousand, or perhaps over that number of her population. A calamity like that deserves the sympathy of the country at large, and we hope the sid extended by our City Council to-day will be in every respect liberal. MEETING CALLED BY THE MAYOR. Upon reception of intelligence yesterday norning of the dreadful calamity which has befallen Chicago, Mayor Morris issued the following call for a meeting to take place

Catahoula.—The Harrisonburg Independent states that the cotton crop in swamp region of the parish is totally destroyed by the worm, but that in the hill region is intact.

Franklin.—The Sian, of Sept. 22, speaking of the ravages of the cotton worm says.

In many places they have made a clean sweep, not only of all the leaves, but the young bolls; on others the damage done is only partial, the third crop not having made its appearance, while on some small places of young cotton no trace of any worms whatever has been discovered. On the whole, the damage to the crop from the worms must be considerable, but no exact estimate of it can now be made.

The Planters' Banner says:

From all accounts, the crops on Bayon Sale are uncommonly good. The cane crop on the bayou has seldom been better. The only thing they have to fear is the heavy wind, which may blow down the heavy cane and cut short the yield; but the windy season has nearly passed away. Louisiana Crops.

Georgia Cotton Crop. A correspondent writing to the Atlanta Sun says:
After an extended trip through Southwestern Georgia, I give you an item, that it would be well our people should particularly notice at this time. I have seen nothing to equal the poorness of the law From Columbus I I have seen nothing to equal me positives of the cotton crop since the war. From Columbus I saw no cotion eighteen inches high, exceptigated lots, and, however Northern speculators may try to estimate the present crop to our disadvantage, I trust our people will have sense enough to hold on; they are in a position this year to command their own price for their crop.

New York Oct. 9.—The great fire in Chleago caused a general panic in Wall street. Gold declined to 113½ on sale of about four millions by one firm. Loans were from J to 7 per cent. tercarrying. Stock market startled and heavy. No important decline was effected until on first call, when the natches from Chleago began to be alarming, and the market broke amid great excitement from 1 to 15 per cent. Preferred from 90½ to 85%, Rock Island from 169½ to 36%, a 4 per cent. dividend which makes it about 195½; St. Paul and Wabash and Ohlo off from 3 to 6 per cent.; Hannibal and 8t. Joe from 83½ to 33. The market at the close assumed a little steader tens, and there was a recovery of about one-half to one per cent. from the lowest point. The Past says the heavy decline to-day, it $believed, will cause a failure of the weaker class of holders, and unless the market is rallied up to-morrow before two o'clock or the time when deliveries are made, it is likely that failures will be numerous, one in all.
